You will need to choose a User name. It really doesn't matter what you call yourself as long as it is unique. Liz Jordan's is LizJd but someone else's is 27869. You will also need to choose a password. Do not worry about ACBL number. The site is American and that is something that is relevant there.

The site will send you an email. You must click on the link in that to actually activate your account.

3. Send Liz Jordan an email (thejordans@clara.net) giving her your real name, your username and your EBU number (if you know it).

If you are unfamiliar with playing bridge online, you might like to play a few Solitaire games to get you started.
